ACADEMIC POLICIES

It is essential that each student learns the discipline of regular and prompt attendance as well as the skills involved in the workplace. At the time the student moves from education and training into a career, employers will be very interested in dependability and punctuality. No matter how skilled the person, an employee is valuable only when present on the job.

Attendance

Regular and successive attendance is expected of all students enrolled in school's courses and programs. School staff will counsel with any student whenever any absences are affecting the student's learning and retention of the course materials. A student may be dropped from a course if the number of hours absent, (5 consecutive hours without approval) interferes with the student's ability to achieve an acceptable level of competence during the remaining course period.

Tardiness

Arrival to class on time is expected of all students enrolled in School's courses. School staff will counsel with any student whenever tardiness is affecting the student's learning and retention of the course materials.

The school's programs and courses are "hour" based, not semester based. It is the policy of school to allow for a leave of absence in only the most of extreme circumstances. In order to be granted a leave of absence, a student must make a written request to the school. A leave of absence should not exceed one month, and only one leave of absence may be granted during the enrollment period.

It is Bentley-Forbes Security Training Academy wish that all students enrolled in a course will complete that course and benefit from the information and experience they acquired. Students are encouraged to find solutions to obstacles that he or she may be facing and ensure continued attendance in the course until complete. The school will contact, by telephone, any student who has dropped out of the program in order to assess the circumstances behind their decision.

Grading Policy and Graduation Requirements

To remain in good academic standing and to receive credit for classes taken, students must maintain an acceptable level of performance through either written tests or hands on evaluation. Many of the courses are pass / fail, however some classes are based upon California State Bureau of Security Investigative Services standardized curriculum. To pass these courses, students must meet any state standards.

P = Pass

F = Fail

I = Incomplete

An incomplete rating or grade will convert to an "F" if not made up within the specified time period. (see: Special Grading Circumstances on next page.) If a student withdraws from a course within the first 2 hours, he or she will receive a "W" (Withdrawal). A grade of withdrawal shows no earned credit.

- b) A student who is 4 class hours or more past due in a course may be given a probation notice. This probation period is for a 5-day period to allow the student the time to complete any unfinished projects in his or her course.
- c) A student will be put on probation if, at the time of the evaluation, he or she does not have a passing grade in a particular course. Each student will be given a probationary opportunity with remedial training. If after remedial training has taken place, the student cannot pass or complete the required classwork, probation may be terminated.

Special Grading Circumstances

This policy is part of Bentley-Forbes Security Training Academy expectations for graduation. Should one not have the proper attire to professionally interview, it is recommended that one begin obtaining a suitable wardrobe during the early days of training. Students should discuss with their instructor and/or the Placement Office, the typical type of clothing one should wear to an interview as well as on the job. Dressing the part of a successful professional raises our self-esteem and confidence. Hair must be professional in style and clean.

Student Grievance Procedure

Students who encounter difficulties, problems, or have complaints, should first bring the matter to the attention of their Instructor. If the Instructor is unable to resolve the situation, the student is to meet with the Program Director. If the matter is still not resolved, it should be brought to the attention of the Chief Academic Officer for final resolution. Students are encouraged, at all times, to verbally communicate their concerns to members of the faculty and administration for amicable solutions. A written grievance, addressed to the Chief Academic Officer, must be received from the student within 48 hours after the incident occurs.

The procedure is as follows:

- 1) The written grievance must be submitted to the Chief Academic Officer within 48 hours of the incident. The Chief Academic Officer will verify that the student has made a verbal attempt to resolve the concern with the instructor or other staff member. If the student has followed the above steps, the Chief Academic Officer will call a Grievance Committee Hearing within 72 hours of receipt of this report.
- 2) All documentation must be submitted with the report, which is to be signed and dated by the student. The Chief Academic Officer will chair a committee meeting which will consist of not less than 3 representatives.

In addition, all persons involved with the incident must be present at the time of the hearing.
